

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant Philip Alan Webster's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Webster devoted more than 24 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a leader in the Maintenance Field, including service in support of Operation Enduring Freedom at Joe Foss Field Air National Guard Base, as well as service in Mitchell, South Dakota, and training in Germany and Panama; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Webster continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant Philip Alan Webster for more than 24 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 29, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

SERGEANT PHILIP ALAN WEBSTER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
